Poetical.

WHERE IS THY HOME ?

BY [illegible] HARDIMAN, JR.

"Where is thy home ? I asked a child,
Who in the morning air
Was twining flowers most sweet and mild,
In garlands for her hair.
"My home," the happy heart replied,
And smiled in childish glee,
"Is on the sunny mountain's side,
Where soft winds wander free
Oh ! blessing fall on artless youth,
And on its rosy hours,
When every word is joy and truth,
And treasures live in flowers.

"Where is thy home ?" I asked of one,
Who bent with flushing face,
To hear a warrior's tender strain
In the wild Wood's secret place.
She spoke not, but her varying cheek
The tale might well impart,—
The home of her young spirit meek,
Was in a kindred heart.
Ah ! souls that well might soar above,
To earth will fondly cling;
And build their hopes on human love—
That light and fragile thing.

"Where is thy home ?" I asked of one,
He was a pilgrim gray,
Who trod with furrowed cheek and wan,
Now musing on his way.
"My home," the happy man replied,
Upturned his holy eyes,
"The land I seek thou ne'er hast seen—
My home is in the skies."
Oh ! blest, thrice blest, the heart must be,
To whom such thoughts are given,
Who dies from worldly fetters free,
Bound home, to Heaven.

Miscellany.

THINK AGAIN.

It is related that during the first few days of the reign of Queen Victoria, then a girl between eighteen and twenty years of age, some sentences of a court martial were presented for her signature. One was death for desertion—a soldier was condemned to be shot and his death warrant was presented to the Queen for her signature. She read it, paused, looked up at the officer who laid it before her, and said:

"Have you nothing to say in behalf of this man.

"Nothing; he has deserted three times," said the officer.

"Think again, my lord" was her reply.

And said the veteran, as he related the circumstance to his friends—for it was no other than the Duke of Wellington—seeing her Majesty so earnest about it, I said, He is certainly a very bad soldier, but there was somebody who spoke as to his character and he may be a good man for aught I know to the contrary."

"I thank you a thousand times, exclaimed the youthful Queen, and hastily writing Pardoned in large letters on the fatal page she sent it across the table with a hand trembling with emotion.

—What a word of instruction, goodness and true philosophy is contained in these two words, think again. Could we adopt their spirit as the rule of our lives, one and all, what a happy change would come over society. In all our business concerns, in our social and moral relations, our political and religious duties, what important results might follow if on many, very many occasions, we would, think again before deciding upon acting.

A STRUGGLE OVER A SOUL.

A strange and disgusting scene occurred around the death-bed of the late sir Allan McNab at Toronto, Canada. It was a struggle of two bigoted ecclesiastics for the opportunity to administer the last rites of religion to the departing spirit, each anxious to count the distinguished spirit into his own particular fold. It appears that on the day before his death the Roman Catholic bishop of Hamilton had been invited in by Lady McNab, who is of that persuasion and had baptized and confirmed the dying man. But it was believed by his relatives of the Episcopal church that he ought to die and really wished to die in the faith in which he had lived, and that he was not of sane mind when he submitted to the Catholic ceremony. Therefore, on the day of his death they got his consent to bring in the Episcopal clergyman, Rev. Mr Geddes, who questioned the dying man closely and satisfied himself that he was a true Episcopalian still. Whereupon he proceeded to administer to him the communion and read the service for the sick. After he had finished one of the catholic prayers for the dying. But the Episcopalian was determined to have the last chance at the dying man and followed up the Catholic prayer with an extra prayer from his own missal. The dying man expressed his impatience with this shocking contest by exclaiming "Oh, when will the end come." But they would not let him die in peace even then. His wife came to his side and exhorted him to die as a Catholic, and the Episcopal priest replied to her with several texts of scripture. Then the Catholic bishop and a priest intruded into the room and tried to induce the Episcopal priest to leave that they might administer extreme unction to the now speechless subject of their shameful squabble. Finally Mr. Geddes agreed to go out if the Catholic ecclesiastics would, and they all went into the hall and had a warm discussion. But Mr Geddes determined, he says, not to leave the house till Sir Allan died, and did stay till he was sure that he had breathed his last and that he had died "in the church."

IN DEBT.

That feeling of over-due bills, of bills coming due, of accounts overdrawn, of tradesmen unpaid, of general money cares, is very dreadful at first, but it is astonishing how soon men get used to it. A load which would crush a man at first, becomes, by habit, not only endurable, but easy and comfortable to the bearer. The habitual debtor goes along jaunty and with elastic step, almost enjoying the excitement of his embarrassments. One is almost inclined to believe that there is something pleasurable in the excitement of drink. But then, at last, the time does come when the excitement is over, and when nothing but the misery is left. If there be an existence of wretchedness on earth, it must be that of the elderly, worn-out roue, who has run this race of dept and bills of accommodation and acceptances—of what, if we were not in these days somewhat afraid of good, broad English, we might call lying and swindling, falsehood and fraud—and who, having ruined all whom he should have loved, having burnt up every one who would trust him much, and scorched all who would trust him a little, is at last left to finish his life with such bread and water as these men get, without one honest thought to strengthen his sinking heart, or one honest friend to hold his shivering hand ! If a man could only think of that, as he puts his name to the first little bill, as to which he is so good-naturedly assured that it can easily be renewed !

CAUTION AS NECESSARY AS DARING.

The Boston Journal says: We know not who is responsible for the bold and, alas! disastrous attack upon the enemy in their strongly fortified position at Fredericksburg, but we should be slow to condemn Gen. Burnside without some evidence that he was not acting under orders from Washington. It has been repeatedly asserted that he crossed the river at Fredericksburg against his own better judgment, and this has not been denied. We know that Gen. Burnside possesses prudence, with his other excellent qualities as a military commander and we can readily believe that he did not order the attack upon the enemy's intrenchments on his own responsibility. He must have known the difficulties of the situation, and it is fair to presume that if left to his own untrammeled resources would have found some way of turning the position. He displayed military genius of the highest order in crossing the river, and also in extricating his army without loss from their critical position after the battle. His arrangements for the battle were judiciously made, and no mistake or blunder is attributed to him in the maneuvering of his troops. He threw into the work all the force he had at his disposal, and seems to have done everything that a commander could do to win the battle. The defect was in the original plan. The enemy should never have been attacked in their strongly intrenched position.—We see that now, through it was not apparent when the public seemed to demand this very movement.

A military critic in one of the New York papers has pointed out the inherent and almost insurmountable obstacles to a successful assault upon intrenchments, now that the range of small arms and cannon has been so immensely increased. A storming column, instead of being under fire of musketry at the most for one hundred yards, as in the times of smooth bore muskets, is now subjected to a deadly fire at the distance of one thousand yards, and the range of cannon has been proportionately increased. The lesson of Fredericksburg will not be entirely lost if it teaches the public more respect for military strategy, and that "marching right on the enemy's works" is not the first condition of success. In the light of this Fredericksburg prudence, and his engineering approaches, flippantly stigmatized as dirt-digging, now appear to have been the highest dictates of military wisdom. McClellan respected the military skill and genius of the commanders opposed to him. How many such lessons as that of Fredericksburg do we require to teach us the real difficulties of the work in Virginia—difficulties which may be—nay, which will be—overcome, but not by rash and headlong precipitancy.

The Political Arrests.

Recorder Hoffman of New York, in his charge to the Grand Jury at the Court of General Sessions, made some observations upon the subject of alleged illegal arrests of citizens. He said:

"The removal of any person from this State into any other State or Territory, to answer to any charge of having committed here an offense against the laws of either the United States or the State, is without the authority of law. And every person, whether he be an officer or private individual, who shall thus seize and confine any person whomsoever, with intent either secretly to confine or imprison him here or to remove him out of the State against his will, acts in violation of the statute, and renders himself liable to indictment and imprisonment. Upon the trial of such indictment, the fact that such seizure, confinement and removal were by order of the President of the United States, of any member of his Cabinet, or other officer of the government, will constitute no legal defense. Neither the President nor any member of the Cabinet nor other officer (not judicial) has any lawful authority to order the seizure, or imprisonment, or removal from the State of any citizen of the state, for any offense whatever, committed, or alleged to have been committed, within its borders."

It is stated that under this charge Mr. Joseph Thompson, First Deputy United States Marshal for the District of New York, has been subpoenaed before the General Sessions Grand Jury to testify in an inquiry of charges made against Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of War, and others. It is supposed that the charges are for false arrests and the imprisonment of certain citizens in Fort Lafayette. The inquiry will be commenced on the 19th inst.

A Fifth Avenue Belle in the Almshouse.—A few years ago the marriage of Miss Boker, a young, beautiful and accomplished lady, with her father's coachman, John Dean, set all the scandal mongers of Gotham on end. A sad hadendum to the "strange, eventful history" has now to be added. After the marriage, the couple, notwithstanding their different "bringings up," lived happily enough together in a small cottage over in Williamsburg. The husband obtained an office in the Custom House, and saved money enough to open a public house at the foot of Grand street, Williamsburg. But, alas! for John Dean, he could not keep a hotel. It is said "he was his own best customer," and as a natural result he commenced treating his wife badly. In a short while all their money was spent, and with poverty coming in at the door, love, as usual, flew out of the window. John beat and abused his wife, but all this she put up with until starvation stared her in the face, when she was compelled to ask admission into the Almshouse. Her petition was granted, and the [illegible] elegant and accomplished belle of the Fifth Avenue [illegible] now the [illegible] [illegible] surroundings.

OUR ARMY CORRESPONDENCE.

FROM THE 7th REGIMENT, R. I. V.

Camp in Front of Fredericksburg, Va.,
Headquarters 7th Reg. R. I. V.,
December 10th, 1862.

Dear News:—In my last I gave you an account of our march to the camp; since then we have been waiting orders, and are still occupying a pleasant locality which might be very comfortable did we feel assured that we should remain long enough to warrant the outlay of labor requisite to build log-houses generally. Some officers and a few of the privates have put up very comfortable cabins and are enjoying them. Our so-called shelter-tents being of very little service during the driving storms of winter. We have had one hard snow storm, leaving the Country round quite like a more Northern climate, being very cold, the ground freezing very hard. Our soldiers have suffered a great deal, having to wait the tardy movements of some official to serve them with good clothes and shoes. Seeing a man walking the streets of Newport in the month of December—his feet but half covered, without shoe or stocking—would excite your warmest sympathy—especially a soldier.—Sorry am I to write that many a good soldier in our camp to-day walks nearly barefoot upon the frozen ground, and his tattered garments bespeak anything except a soldier of the Grand Union Army of 1862. Nevertheless it is true; many men who have never known want of any kind at home, but who left every comfort there, are in our ranks unable to procure shoes or clothes to make a respectable appearance. There is great fault somewhere. No soldier in the American army should be without good and warm clothing. True there are many careless men who are never well clothed, but we have very few such. Most would be comfortable if nothing more.

We have read in the papers of the pleasant Thanksgiving you have had at home. The day was noticed in camp. Our brigade (Gen. Nagles,) comprising the 48th Penn., 9th N. H., 2d Maryland, and 7th R. I., were mustered out for service at 10 o'clock, forming in Hollow Square around a desk composed of one large box covered with the old stars and stripes, and a smaller box for a platform. The fine brass band of the 9th N. H. to the left, opened the services with some of its best executed and most appropriate pieces, when the Rev. Mr. Gushee, Chaplain of the same regiment, followed with the proper services of the Episcopal Church, and preached a very patriotic sermon, which was attentively listened to by the General, his field and staff, as well as the line officers and soldiers of the different regiments. The 7th were particularly interested, as the Chaplain is a Rhode Islander, a graduate of old Brown University, and a man full of that love of his native State which so generally characterizes all of her sons. I hope we may some day listen to him in old Newport. We missed the big, fat turkey at dinner, but we had roast beef and hard tack-pudding, and really enjoyed it with the very agreeable company of the 9th, Capt. C., and Lieut. B, of Company I; Capt. L., and Lieut. B., of Company A, and the Quartermaster's clerk, Mr. M. Our cider, manufactured by the host, was a compositoin which can easily be obtained in camp, and is really a pleasant beverage,—Cider-vinegar and water, sweetened with goodly Company and these aforesaid condiments, we too had our Thanksgiving,—what though our thoughts went back to the loved ones at home, seeing our own old place in the family circle vacant.

We are now looking forward to an early movement of the army; but our division may remain here some time. We were greatly overjoyed at the arrival of the 12th this afternoon, about two o'clock. They are now encamped in the same field with the 7th, and we feel much as if we had home neighbors. I have seen many of the Newport boys, they appeared in fine spirits, and the whole regiment present a fine appearance.

While the 7th were out on dress parade this evening, our General-in-Chief, Burnside, rode by, stopping to call on Gen. Nagle. On his return he stopped in front of the 7th, drawn up in line, under command of Lieut.-Col. W. B. Sayles, who proposed three cheers in honor of our favorite. After prayer by the Chaplain, to which Gen. Burnside gave his respectful attention, he rode away, stopping to return the hearty greeting of the officers of the 12th. Accompanied by only one aid, Gen. Burnside visits his several commands, always kindly noticing every one on his route,—manifesting a personal regard for all, he wins the hearts and affection of the largest volunteer army of the world. That he will succeed in fulfilling the best wishes of his friends, none can doubt, and when the proper time arrives we shall move on. G. M.

Sergeant Morse Wounded.—A typographical error occurred in the extract of a letter from Capt. Cane of Co. I, 7th Regiment; which we published yesterday. Sergeant Map should have read Sergeant Morse, a young man well known and highly respected in our community.

Religious, Eli and Sybil Jones approved ministers of the Society of Friends are expected to be at the meeting in Malborough Street to-morrow morning.

At the convention of Connecticut newspaper editors and proprietors, held at New Haven on Tuesday, it was agreed to memorialize Congress to have all duties on printing paper abolished, and that the Government should modify the onerous taxes upon newspapers, which, as construed by Government, officers, are much higher than Congress intended them to be. The convention further resolved to advance the rates of subscription and advertisement; to make charges for inserting notices of births, marriages and deaths, resolutions of companies and associations, notices of new inventions, &c. A committee was appointed to communicate with the editors of New England concerning the matter of an independent Associated Press, to co-operate with the Western Press Association, now in course of formation, and report at a future meeting.

The Washington Republican, of yesterday, says "Between this city and Philadelphia we have a hundred thousand men and officers doing nothing, and rendering the country no service, while Burnside, with a force far inferior to the rebels, is confronting them in their intrenchments, and his men falling by the thousand before the murderous fire of the enemy."

GENERAL SUMMARY.

Gen. Fremont.—A [illegible] in Washington that Gen. [illegible] Gen. Burn[illegible]

Gen. [illegible] is unanimous in according to Gen. [illegible] great credit for his management of affairs [illegible] and especially for the able manner in which he brought our troops across the river without the loss of a man.

Political.—Ex-Governor Hicks of Maryland has given in his adhesion to the President's emancipation policy. It is thought that he and Winter Davis are sure of being elected to the next Congress.

A special Washington dispatch to the New York Evening Post of yesterday afternoon says that Secretary Chase has prepared a bill to regulate the finances of the Government, for the use of the Ways and Means Committee, but will consult several able financiers before submitting it.

The Prince de Joinville relates as an instance of the odd coolness of our people, that during one of the hottest battles of the Chickahominy, newspaper sellers went up and down the line crying out the latest news from the North, and found plenty of purchasers for the journals they had to sell.

To Grumblers.—When Pelissier first assumed command of the allied operations against Sebastopol, he met with a signal and bloody repulse. His second effort won the city for the Allies, and for himself the immortal title of the Duc de Malakoff.

A Retired Hero.—A distinguished character has withdrawn from public life. Mr. Tom Sayers the hero of Farnsborough Heath, whose bout with Heenan resulted in a draw game, announces his intention never again to fight, or second any man who may fight. Reposing upon his laurels, Mr. Tom Sayer's relinquishes the further pursuit of fame, subsides into the quiet but respectable vocation of keeper of a tavern, and declares himself forever out of the "ring." Battered in many hard contests, damaged as to nose and eyes in the practice of that noble art of self-defence which is the Briton's pride and boast, and considerably disfigured in general personal appearance in consequence of his devotion to his peculiar pastime, he no longer threatens the "champion of America," and there is no reason to apprehend the recurrence of an "international fight" with all its disgusting but popular adjuncts.

What Kentucky Has Done.—Senator Davis, in contradicting an assertion that three-fourths of the military population of Kentucky are in the rebel army, said:—

"I do not know the exact number of the military population of Kentucky, but it is between one hundred and fifty and one hundred and seventy-five thousand. Although a great many rebels have gone from Kentucky to join the confederate army, I am satisfied the whole number does not exceed eight thousand; and if every one of them was made to bite the dust before morning, I should interpose no objection whatever. But let me tell gentlemen that Kentucky has sent into the Union army thirty-nine regiments of infantry and three batteries, and she has nearly completed her fourteenth regiment of cavalry. Considering the divisions in that State, I think that is doing very well."

The Value of Pure Wine in Sickness.—Few people are aware of the benefit of wine in sickness, consequently we publish the following extract from Hooper's Medical Dictionary:

"It is a well-founded observation that those who indulge in the use of pure wine, are less subject to fevers of the malignant or intermittent kind. In putrid sore throat, in small pox, attended with great debility and symptoms of putridity, &c., wine is considered as a principal remedy; and in almost all cases of languor and great prostration of strength, wine is experienced to be a more grateful and efficacious cordial than can be furnished from the whole class of aromatics."

The chief difficulty with reliable wines has been their scarcity and exorbitant price; but this has been removed by the introduction of a pure [illegible] extensively cultivated by Mr. A. Speer, of New Jersey. We understand he has submitted his wine to the test of many of our celebrated physicians, and all concur in its purity, medical properties and superiority to the best port wine. Most of them, to signify their just appreciation of its salutary effects, prescribe it in cases of debility, affections of the kidneys and chronic complaints, requiring a tonic, sudorific, or diuretic treatment.

The United States Attorney General, Mr. Bates, of Missouri, has given an important opinion in relation to the citizenship of the negro. The question arose on the detention of a schooner at Perth Amboy, New Jersey, because commanded by a colored man, and so by a person not a citizen of the United States. The point was submitted by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Attorney General and he gave an opinion the substance of which is as follows:

As the constitution does not define the word citizen, Mr. Bates concludes that all free persons, without distinction of race or color, if native born, are citizens. A distinction is made between the inherent rights of citizens and the political privileges of certain classes. All citizens have a right to protection, but only certain classes enjoy the privileges of voting and holding office. Hitherto not only the public but jurists have often confounded the two. A child or a woman is a citizen, though not always privileged to vote or hold office. The Dred Scott opinions are pronounced void and of no authority, since the province of the Supreme Court was only to settle the question of the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court. They are simply entitled to the respect due to the views of eminent gentlemen and no more. The papers conclude as follows:

"And now, upon the whole matter, I give it as my opinion that the free man of color mentioned in your letter, if born in the United States, is a citizen of the United States, and, if otherwise qualified, is competent, according to the acts of Congress, to be master of a vessel engaged in the coasting trade."

The Trial Of General Porter—Astounding Developments. The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune states that public temper is deeply aggravated by the rumor of introduction, as testimony in the Fitz John Porter case, of the telegrams sent by the accused to McClellan and to Burnside, and which Porter endeavored to destroy and supposed he had destroyed. They had been sent from the field over the military telegraph.—When Porter heard that Pope was going to bring him to trial, he sent to the operator for the originals. He, of course, refused to give them up.—Porter sent a peremptory order for the dispatches, and soldiers enough to execute it. The operator was compelled to surrender them.

Porter did not know that every dispatch was transmitted by the wires to the officials of the War Department, and was there put on record.—Copies of these telegrams sworn by the operator in the field to be those that he sent from Gen. Porter, were offered in evidence on Tuesday, and are said to contain startling evidence of hostility to Pope and contempt for the plan of campaign in which he was expected to loyally participate. The only portions of these dispatches accessible are the following:

"Pope himself has gone to Centreville to-day with two corps as a body guard."

"I hope Mack is at work to get us out of this."

"I hope McClellan is satisfied with what we are doing."

In a dispatch written at the time of receiving Pope's order to march to support Hooker, at Kettle Run, Porter speaks sneeringly of the order, and sends it as a specimen of Pope's management.

FARINA CRACKERS.—Mr. Wing is the only manufacturer of Farina Crackers in the United States. Since Wing's Farina Crackers have become so popular, one or two individuals have named a very different and inferior article Farina Crackers, and have copied portions of Mr. Wing's advertisement in order to induce the belief that theirs were the same as Wing's.—This attempt at deception should be understood by all. Wing's Farina Crackers may be had of the best family grocers generally.

Bottle of Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, the cost of manufacturing which is as great as that of almost any other medicine; and the very low price at which it is sold, makes the profit to the seller apparently small, and unprincipled dealers will sometimes recommend other medicines on which their profits are larger, unless the customers insist upon having Madame Porter's and none other. Ask for Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, price 13 cts., and in large bottles at 25 cts., and take no other. If you cannot get it at one store you can at another.

Sold by all Druggists and Storekeepers at 13 cts. and in larger bottles at 25 cts.

TO HORSE OWNERS.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment
FOR HORSES

Is unrivaled by any, and in all cases of Lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratches, Mange, &c., it will also cure speedily. Spavin and Ringbone may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative ease.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

Resignation of Secretary Seward.

WASHINGTON, 19th.
The Star says Secretary Seward has resigned.

THE WAR IN THE WEST—FROM VICKSBURG.

CAIRO, Dec. 19th.
The train from Jackson to Columbus was fired into to-day by guerrillas. No damage was done. An arrival from Vicksburg reports that the rebels are vigorously fortifying that place. Report says they have extended their lines back from the river eight miles. Seventy guns are mounted on the river and 200 in all. The citizens have been sometime busy packing up preparatory to evacuating the place, upon the opening of the anticipated federal attack.

Cotton burning is still kept up by guerrillas.—Gen. Hurlbut has ordered the drinking houses and saloons of Memphis closed immediately. Persons violating the order directly or indirectly will be severely punished.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, 19th.
There is much feeling here among naval officers in regard to the extraordinary delay of paying over prize money for distribution. The value of the captures amount to at least 10,000,000 dollars but as yet the sum of only 300,000 dollars has been accounted for to the Department. Representatives Sedgwick's resolution of inquiry adopted today will elicit all the facts in the premises and lead to a thorough investigation. Many of the vessels and cargoes were sold at least six or ten months age. The money is known to be in the hands of Marshals yet no returns have been rendered.

FROM FORT MONROE.

FORT MONROE, Dec. 18.
A Convention held yesterday afternoon at Norfolk, nominated John McCloud as a candidate for Member of Congress from the 2d District of Virginia. The election will be held next Monday in conformity with Gen. Dix's proclamation.

A fleet of nearly 150 schooners and seventy other vessels have put in here, owing to a heavy wind outside. A British bark is ashore on Cape Henry, and the crew in peril. The Cadmus leaves this afternoon to go to the rescue. Gen. Corcoran is at Fort Monroe to-day.

FROM THE ARMY.

The Times prints the following;
"HEADQUARTERS left wing of the Army,
Wednesday Evening, 17th.
Yesterday morning a squad of rebel officers to the number of a dozen or more, rode down on the plain opposite to the Bernard House. No sooner had they come within range than Battery C, 5th Regulars, dropped a shell among them, which exploding, killed two.

The enemies pickets have advanced to the river banks along which they are strongly posted.

The wounded in hospitals are doing well, the weather being favorable to their recovery.

The Times Washington despatch says: It is understood that the policy is being adopted by the War Department of sending the seriously wounded soldiers to their homes or to hospitals in their own states. Several hundred were sent to-day by railroad.

ADVICES FROM YORKTOWN.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.
The Times has the following, by advices from Yorktown dated Dec. 18th, we learn that Gen. Naglee and staff have just returned from the reconnoisance of Gloucester county. He took out four regts. of infantry and a hundred and fifty cavalry and brought all back, none ever wounded or straggled.

Among his prisoners is one John Seawell, Captain of the new guerrilla party in Gloucester. We brought in his horses, cattle and sheep. Our captures of animals foot up near a thousand. A number of prisoners were also taken but released on parole.

Maj. Hill with the mounted and fifty cavalry proceeded to Sahida over 30 miles from Yorktown and seized a large tannery which was engaged on work for the rebel army, brought away a quantity of leather and destroyed the whole concern.

A squad of rebel cavalry were found and our pursuit being given they abandoned their horses and took to the woods. Their horses were secured. At Cross Roads where the rebels have their headquarters barracks had been erected and these were visited. The rebels were followed through Greenville, but not overtaken. On returning we burned their barracks and all belonging to them.

FROM REBELDOM.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 17th inst., contains in its telegraphic columns the following despatches:

RALEIGH, 16th.
The bill to raise ten thousand troops for state defence passed the second reading in the house today. The troops are to be taken from those liable to conscription. The vote was close. A preamble disclaiming any intention to come in conflict with the Confederate Government was voted down.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 16.
The enemy's gunboats have again been shelling James Island at intervals to-day without effect.

SEWARD'S RESIGNATION CONFIRMED.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20,
The Tribune has the following editorial paragraph. We are informed by a letter from Washington that Mr. Seward has tendered his resignation as Secretary of State. Our informant speaks positively. He adds that the resignation was suddenly determined upon and will probably be accepted.

IMPORTANT FROM NEWBERN.

NEW YORK, 20th.
A Newbern letter states that the Gunboats and flotilla are acting in conjunction with Gen. Foster. The gunboats however, could not proceed far up Neuse River on account of the low stage of water and the Maine artillery under Col. Manchester on board the flotilla were obliged to proceed without them. On arriving within two miles of Kingston the flotilla suddenly came upon an eleven gun battery which opened very effectively on the Allison, but she was finally backed out having been pierced in many places, her smoke stack cut away, pilot house torn away, and steam safety pipe cut away.

The flotilla retreated the next day and was fired upon from the banks by guerrillas, who used balls dipped in verdigrese and with copper wire attached. A shell from the Allison did great damage to the battery and some thirty rebels were killed on the way down the river.

The Flotilla Ocean Wave struck a stump on returning, sinking in three feet of water. Her gun cargo and all were saved and she will be got off soon.

THE REBELS FRIGHTENED.

Another Newbern letter states that deserters and prisoners from the enemy as well as despatches to Gen. Evans, captured, show that all calls by Gen. Evans for reinforcements from Petersburg, Weldon and Goldsboro were refused on the ground that each place needed all the troops available to protect their own position.

Dispatches have been received from Richmond at Weldon and Raleigh as well as Wilmington and Goldsboro urging the necessity of reinforcements. The rebels say Burnside is advancing and all is lost if they are not aided at Richmond even at the expense of giving up North Carolina. They are greatly frightened at the capital.

A CLERGYMAN ORDERED OFF.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 19.
Rev. Dr. McPheters, of the Pine St. Church, has been ordered by the Provost Marshal-General to leave the State within ten days, for encouraging the rebellion and sustaining disloyalty in his church. Three members of the church have been appointed trustees, and directed to fill the pulpit with a loyal man.

THE VICTORY AT KINGSTON, N. C.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.
The details of the victory at Kingston, N. C., show that the march was a continued series of fighting in which all distinguished themselves.—Several bayonet charges took place. The rebels are reported as having had 1,600 men, and their loss in killed and wounded is heavy. Five hundred have been taken prisoners. Col. Gray, of the 96th New York, was killed. Our total loss will not exceed a hundred and fifty. The principal fight was a few miles from Kingston, where the rebels were entrenched, but after three hours' fighting they retreated towards Kingston. The rebels tried to destroy a bridge leading to that place, but the 9th New Jersey charged on them and saved it. Our division rapidly crossed when the rebels retreated on one rebel brigade towards Weldon, our shells helping them along. Captain Wells and Lieut. Perkins, of the 10th Connecticut, were killed. Their regiment fought till out of ammunition and then went in with bayonets.

The 23d Mass., Major Chambers commanding, captured seventy officers and men, including the Lieutenant Colonel of the 23d N. C. regiment. The march was taken up on the 16th for Goldsboro.

POSTSCRIPT.

LATER FROM THE WEST.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 19.
Gen. Curtis has received a despatch from Gen. Herron to the following effect: It is believed that Gen. Hindman has crossed the Ark river with his Infantry while Gen. Larmaduke is on the north side with his cavalry. Hundreds of men from Gen. Hindman's army are daily joining that of Gen. Herron, many of them are Missourians, who express the greatest disgust with the rebel campaign in the West and avow as their conviction that its further prosecution is hopeless.

Gen. Curtis yesterday received a written communication from Gen. Holmes, commanding the Trans Mississippi detachment of the rebels forwarded by direction of Jefferson Davis. The communication is an enquiry for the facts relative to the shooting of ten confederate citizens by order of Gen. McNeil. Enclosed with the communication is a printed slip from the Grenada Appeal containing a passage credited to the Palmyra Mobile Courier. Gen. Holmes and the Confederate Government desired to know if the passage in the Palmyra Courier is substantially correct. The reply of Gen. Curtis will probably be published and it is looked for with much interest.

DR. MATTISON'S
GREAT INDIAN REMEDY FOR FEMALES.

Dr. Mattison's Indian Emmenagogue.

This celebrated Female Medicine, possessing virtues unknown of anything else of the kind, and proving effectual after all others have failed, is designed for both married and single ladies, and is the very best thing known for the purpose, as it will bring on the monthly sickness in cases of obstruction, from any cause, and after all other remedies of the kind have been tried in vain.

OVER 2000 BOTTLES

have now been sold without a single failure, when taken as directed, and without the least injury to health in any case. It is put up in bottles of three different strengths, with full directions for using, and sent by express, closely sealed, to all parts of the country.

PRICES—Full strength, $10; half strength, $6; quarter strength, $3 per bottle.

Remember! This medicine is designed expressly for OBSTINATE CASES, which all other remedies of the kind have failed to cure; also that it is warranted as represented IN EVERY RESPECT, or the price will be refunded.

Beware of Imitations! None genuine and warranted unless purchased directly of Dr. M., or at his office. Accommodations for Ladies wishing to remain in the city a short time for treatment.

Dr. Mattison's Diuretic Compound,
For Stone and Urinary Disorders.

This new remedy contains neither Balsam, Copaiva Spirits of Nitre, Cubebs, Turpentine, or any other nauseous drugs, but is an elegant vegetable liquid, pleasant to the taste and smell, grateful to the stomach, cooling, cleansing and healing in its operation and speedily allaying all heat and irritation in the urinary passage. You, therefore, who have been swallowing down Balsam Copaiva, either in capsules or mixtures, for months in succession, until with pale face and disordered stomach your breath and clothes are filled with its vile odor; throw away the disgusting mixture, and send for a bottle of this New Remedy, which will not only cure you at once, but at the same time it will cleanse the system from the injurious effects of the various mixtures you have been taking so long.

ONE BOTTLE (WHICH LASTS A WEEK, WILL OFTEN EFFECT A PERMANENT CURE.—Price $2,00.

Dr. Mattison's Anti-Syphilitic Syrup,
For Constitutional Syphilis.

No remedy ever discovered has done what has been achieved by this. Under its use every form of constitutional Syphilis, that is specially cured, and in a few weeks the subtle poison is completely eradicated from the system, and health and strength are permanently restored.

It was this remedy that cured in a few weeks a gentleman from the south, then stopping at Newport, and for which he presented Dr. M. with $450 beside his bill, after having been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians in Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York for FIVE YEARS.

One bottle, which lasts a month, will often effect a perfect cure. Price $10; half size, $6.

Dr. Mattison's Nerve Invigorator,

For Nervous Debility, Loss of Power, Impotency, Confusion of Thought, Loss of Memory, Irritable Temper, Gloomy Apprehensions, Despondency and Melancholy, which may end in Loss of Reason.

This new remedy for that fearful train of mental and physical evils arising from venereal excesses, and secret habits of the young, is composed of the most soothing, strengthening and invigorating medicines to be found in the whole Vegetable Kingdom, which, in combination, form the most perfect antidote for this obstinate and distressing class of maladies ever yet discovered.—It has now been sent to nearly every State in the Union, relieving the untold sufferings of hundreds who have never seen the inventor, restoring them to comparative health, strength and happiness. Price—Quart bottle, which lasts a month, $10; half size, $5.

These four GREAT REMEDIES are the result of over twenty years' study and practice, and as now prepared they are known to be the very best for their respective purposes, and have therefore induced to make them public for the mutual benefit of myself and the sick, who otherwise could never avail themselves of their benefits. They are all warranted as represented, in every respect, or the price will be refunded.

Prepared and sold ONLY at DR. MATTISON'S REMEDIAL INSTITUTE FOR SPECIAL DISEASES, No. 28 Union street, Providence, R. I., and sent by express, secure from observation, to all parts of the United States.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

It has been estimated that over Two Hundred Thousand Dollars are paid to swindling quacks annually in New England alone, and that too, without any benefit to those who pay it. All this comes from trusting, without inquiry, to men who are alike destitute of honor, character or skill and whose only recommendation is their own false and extravagant assertions in praise of themselves. The only way to avoid imposition is to take no man's word, no matter what his pretensions are, but MAKE INQUIRY. It will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in nine cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them unless you know who and what they are.

Dr. M. will send free, by enclosing one stamp as above, a Pamphlet on DISEASES OF WOMEN, and on Private Diseases generally; giving full information with the most undoubted references and testimonials without which no advertising physician, or medicine of this kind is deserving of ANY CONFIDENCE WHATEVER.

Orders by mail promptly attended to. Write your address plainly, and direct to DR. MATTISON as above.

LOST—Somewhere between the Blue Road and foot of Mary street, via Broad, Marlboro', Charles and Thames streets—a Package wrapped in brown paper, containing a Napkin, Knife, and Silver Fork, the latter marked M. DYSPEPSIA & FITS.

A SURE CURE FOR THESE DISTRESSING COMPLAINTS IS NOW MADE KNOWN IN A

"Treatise on Foreign and Native Herbal Preparations."

Published by DR. O. PHELPS BROWN.

The prescription was furnished him in such a providential manner that he cannot conscientiously refuse to make it known, although he never was a believer in Clairvoyance, Spiritualism, Psychology, &c. This remarkable remedy has cured everybody who has tried it, never failing in a single case. It is equally sure in cases of Fits as of Dyspepsia; and the ingredients may be found in any drug store. Those who are afflicted with Consumption, Bronchitis, or Asthma, may also be cured by the use of my Herbal Preparations, which are charged with electro-magnetic properties, and an aura or aromatic atmosphere is continually emanating from them, in consequence of the positive and negative repulsion of its atomical electro-magnetical principles, thereby rendering their efficacy truly wonderful in all cases of Lung Complaints. I will send this valuable prescription free to any person on receipt of their name. Address DR. O. PHELPS BROWN, No. 19 Grand street, Jersey City, N. J.

A CHALLENGE AND A REWARD.

$500 REWARD.

I beg leave to inform my friends and the community, that from recent arrangements made by me, I NOW offer the above reward in good faith, which shall be paid in cash to any chemist or physician, of good and responsible standing in the State, who, on due analysis and satisfactory evidence, can find anything in the BRANDIES, WINES, GINS, &c., &c., NOW for sale by me so pure, other than is found in all PURE, GENUINE and UNADULTERATED ARTICLES.

Knowing, from experience, that our citizens in general labor under the impression, with good cause, that pure liquors cannot be had, I, after much pains, studious investigation, and from the reliable source with whom I NOW contract for my supplies in these articles, do stake my reputation as a man, my integrity as a merchant, that if the liquors NOW sold by me as pure "are not so," then none can be had from the vineyards in France, or from any part of the world. As a proof of my sincerity, I challenge chemical contradiction, and invite all to come and test for themselves, when they will learn that NOW, as never before, pure liquors can be purchased in Newport, by bottle or measure, for medicinal or family purposes, and as cheap as in any other place in these United States.

WM. ALDERSON, Newport, R. I.

N. B.—The main inducement for all to give me a call is, that my figure for this genuine article is rather less, than more, than is NOW charged for the handsome labeled, bottled compounds so extensively sold all over the country. Mch 20 1y

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

(under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State St., opposite Kilby St.,

BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through its inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents."

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration of the Patent Office.

EDMOND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
